I have been looking for that place, that island, seven years.".But a year or so later he saw Diamond out in the back garden with his playmate Rose. The children were squatting on their haunches, heads close together, laughing. Something intense or uncanny about them made him pause at the window on the stairs landing and watch them. A thing between them was leaping up and down, a frog? a toad? a big cricket? He went out into the garden and came up near them, moving so quietly, though he was a big man, that they in their absorption did not hear him. Might Diamond go (as his mother's uncle had gone) to the School of Wizards on Roke Island? If there were any spells woven about that hill or the bay he now saw opening before it, they were gossamer to him, transparent.
